

When Death is Near . . . Even though death is a journey we will all take, it is normal to be frightened and anxious when the end is near. Those facing death may also be in pain, yet holding on. Reassure your loved one that:

God is With Us to the End

Psalm 23

John 14:25-29

John 14:1-6a

God Promises Us Eternal Life

Revelation 21:1-4

1 Corinthians 15:51-57

John 11:25

John 3:16

Romans 8:38-39

Matthew 11:28

Psalm 62:8

When Death Has Occurred . . . We are called by God to care for one another and in times of grief it may be difficult to know what to say or do. Being present sometimes is enough – not just immediately following a death, but more importantly in the weeks and months to come. God will equip us to provide comfort.

We Are To Comfort Those Who Mourn
